HARBOR HYMN

"Beside Lake Erie's water blue
Stands dear old Harbor High;
Her friendliness, her spirit true,
Her fame will never die.

Harbor, dear Harbor High,
Thy name we love!
Send forth thy guiding light

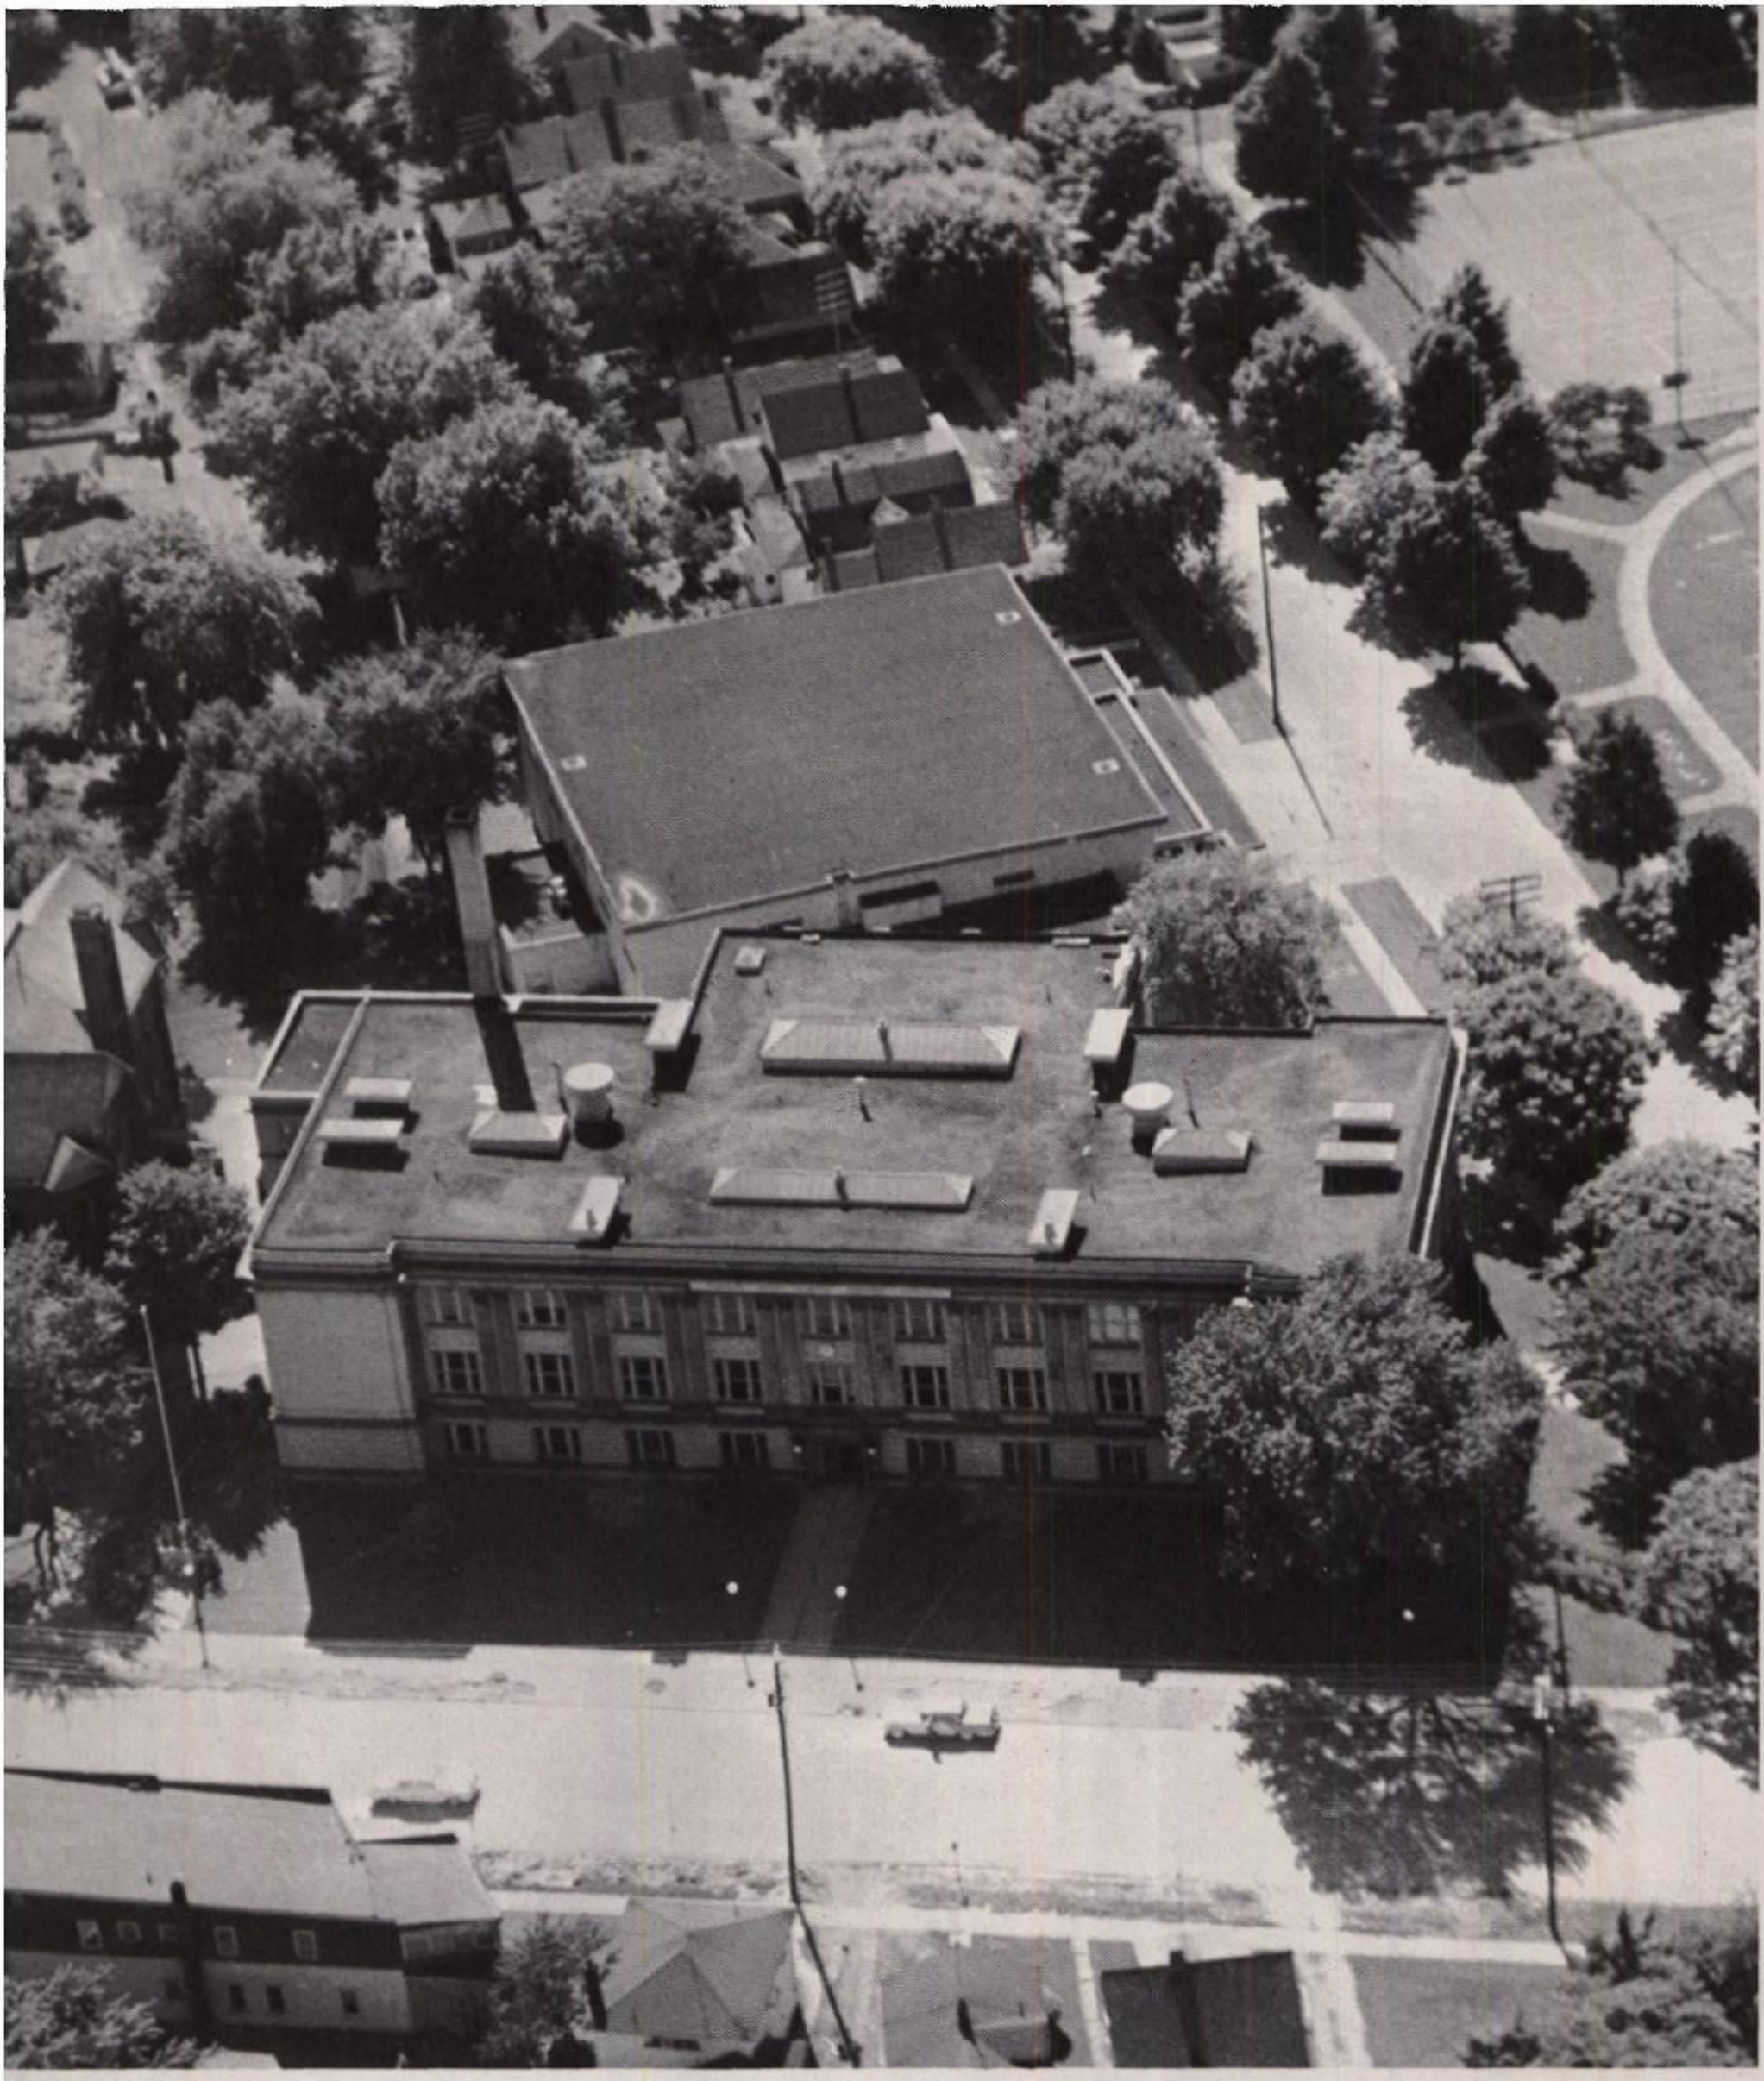
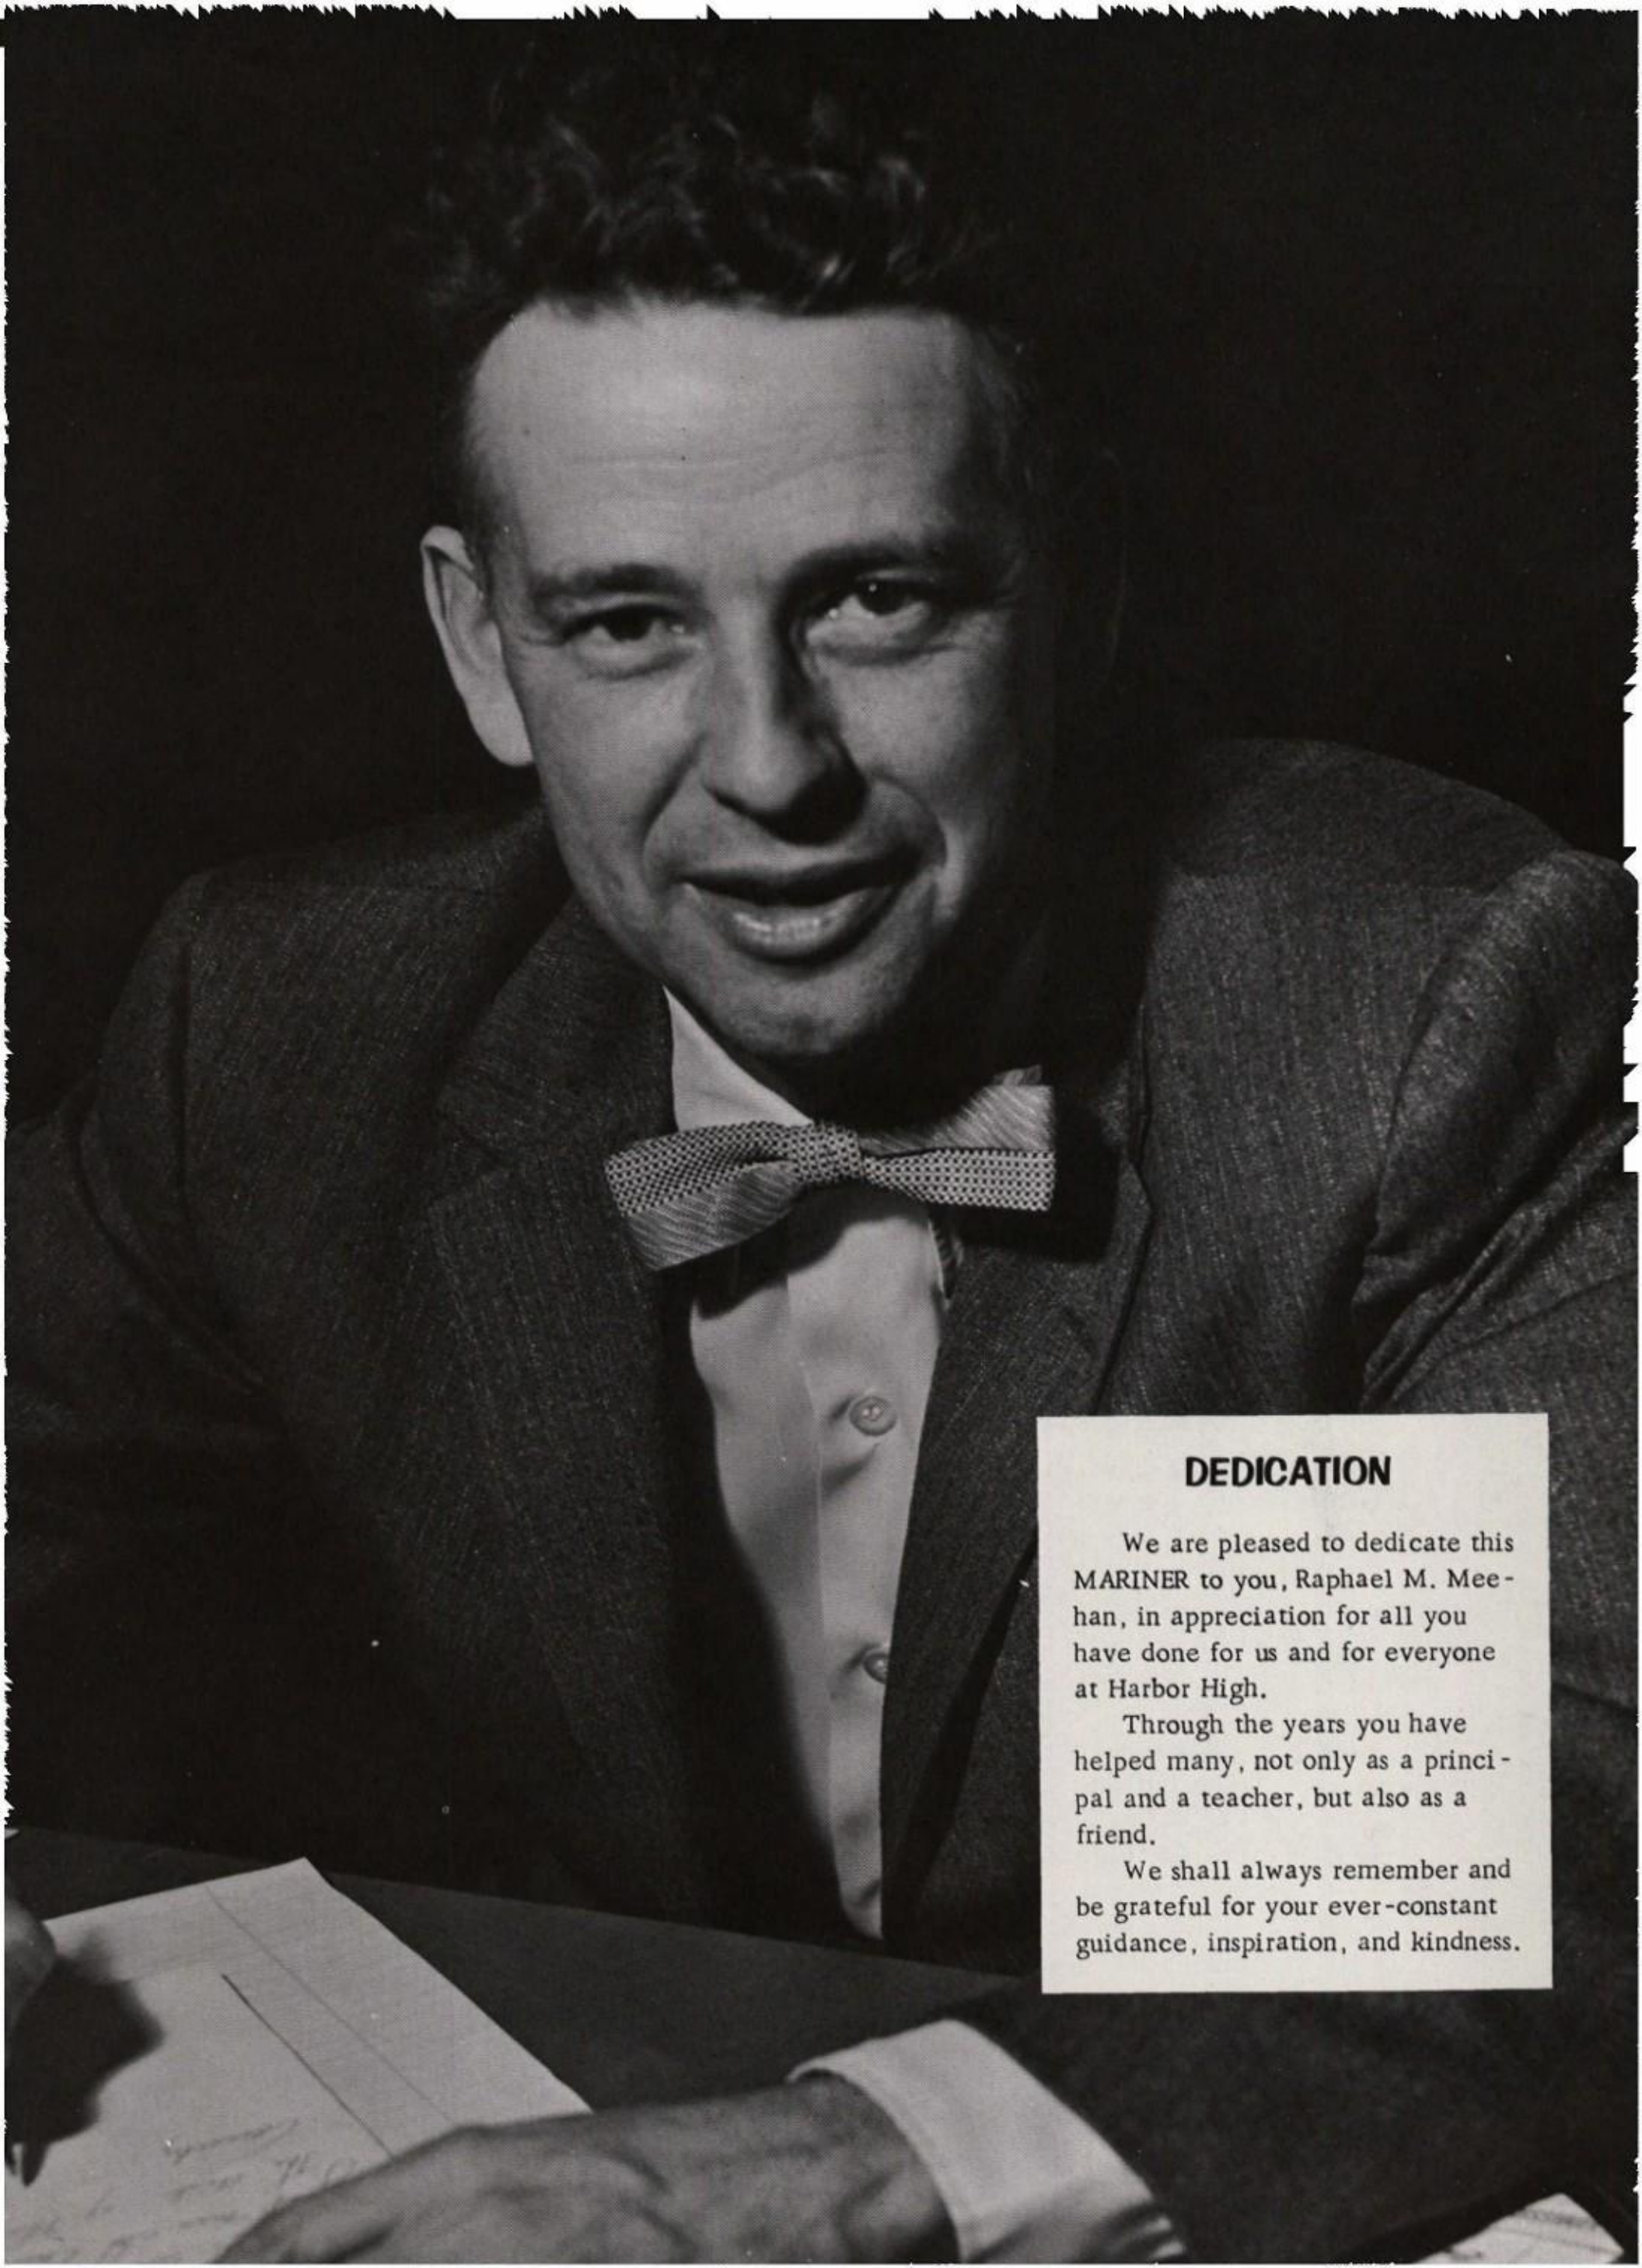
Purple and gold shall be
Colors of royalty;
We pledge our loyalty,
Harbor, to thee!"

THE 1959 MARINER



As you turn through the pages of this MARINER, may you recall with fond memories your days at Harbor High.

We, the Yearbook Staff, sincerely hope that through this book you will always remember Harbor; the teachers from whom you learned, the classes you were in, the friends you made here, the teams you cheered on to victory, and the fun you had belonging to clubs and participating in the year's activities.



DEDICATION

We are pleased to dedicate this MARINER to you, Raphael M. Meehan, in appreciation for all you have done for us and for everyone at Harbor High.

Through the years you have helped many, not only as a principal and a teacher, but also as a friend.

We shall always remember and be grateful for your ever-constant guidance, inspiration, and kindness.

Superintendent Ralph S. Lanham is dictating to his secretary, Mrs. Helia K. Lehtinen, in the "Lower Office."

Seniors of the Class of 1959:

You are to be congratulated upon the achievement of graduation from high school. You, as a class, are one of the fortunate groups in our school community. This good fortune did not just happen. It has resulted from your ability and labor and the planning of a large sponsoring group--your parents, friends and neighbors, and every citizen of our community.

Now, what are you going to do? This problem faces every young citizen when secondary school days are finished. There is no set formula that will guarantee successful living for you. You must be the architect.

Our world offers unlimited opportunities for success to those willing to prepare themselves and then work.

You are going to find the environment different when you leave school. You will be "on your own" to a greater extent. You will have to make more decisions affecting your own living. You will be competing against more people and larger groups than you ever have during your school years.

Today we are living in an inflationary spiral, in moral and spiritual values as well as in material things. There is plenty of quantity. Too often, though, the qualitative values of life are passed over too lightly in seeking more and more things that have no lasting value. You must learn early to practice control--first in the choice of your interests and secondly, in your performance.

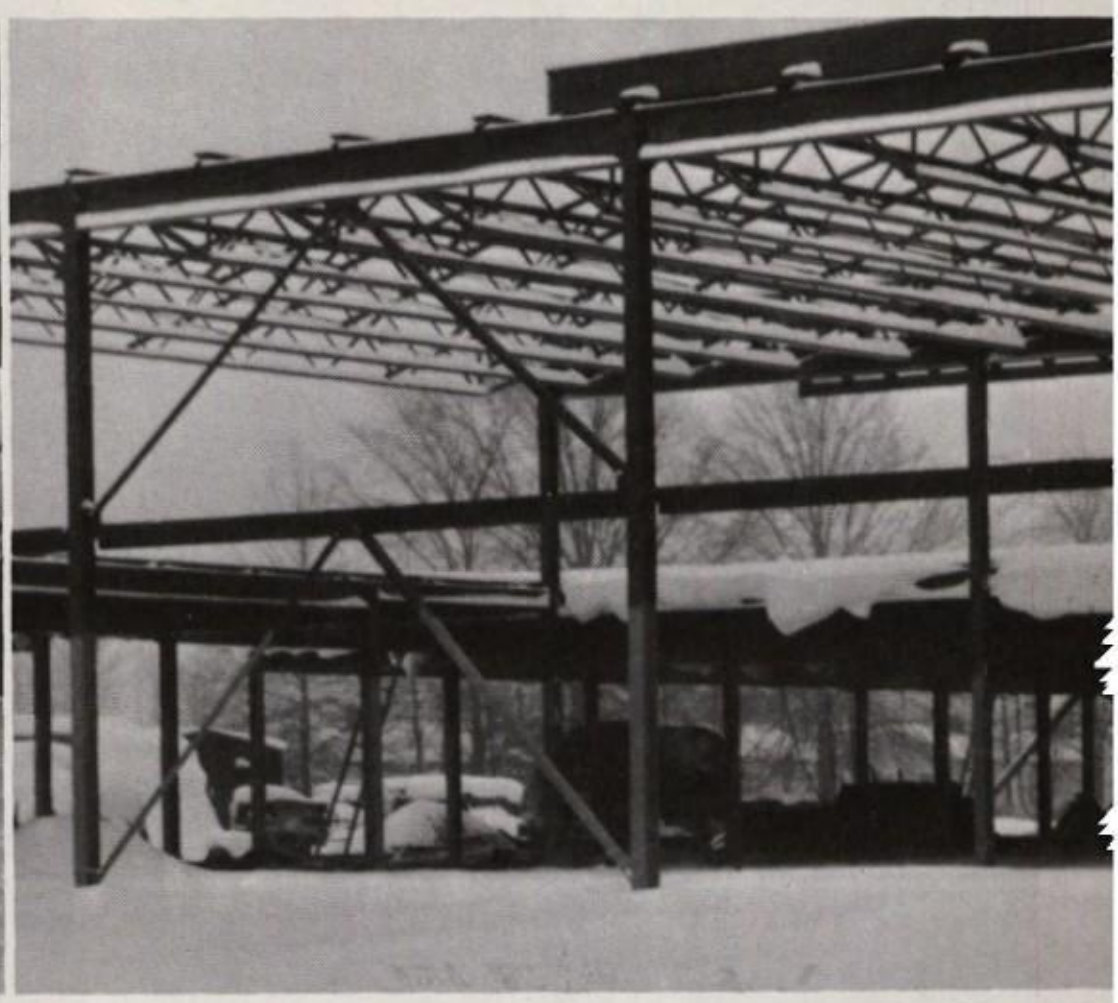
No man succeeds alone. Often in times of crisis or decision you will be limited in resources of your own strength, but you have the help of your parents and friends. You have the greatest asset any individual can realize in the love, protection, and power of God. Use all your potential assets.

The faculty, Board of Education, and I wish you every success in your future activities.

Sincerely,

Ralph S. Lanham

Board President Laird and Supt. Lanham look over blueprints for the new school.



Work has begun on the new Thomas Jefferson Elementary School on West 13th St.

SCHOOL BOARD

Being a School Board member is a thankless job; however these six men consider it a matter of civic pride. In addition to regular monthly meetings, the members often forego personal pleasures to attend many extra meetings.

Our School Board members hold a variety of positions in their daily lives. Mr. James G. Laird, President of the Board, is also president of the Laird Lumber Company, while Mr. John Huggins is vice-president of the Iten Fibre Company. Mr. Robert Z. Koski, Clerk of the Board, is an attorney, and Mr. Paul E. Hakala is the assistant county recorder. Dr. Carl G. Pearson is a dentist, while Mr. William J. Harmon is the owner of the Harmon Insurance Agency.

Board members Laird and Harmon.

Board members Hakala and Huggins.

Examining financial reports are Clerk of Board, Koski, and Dr. Pearson.

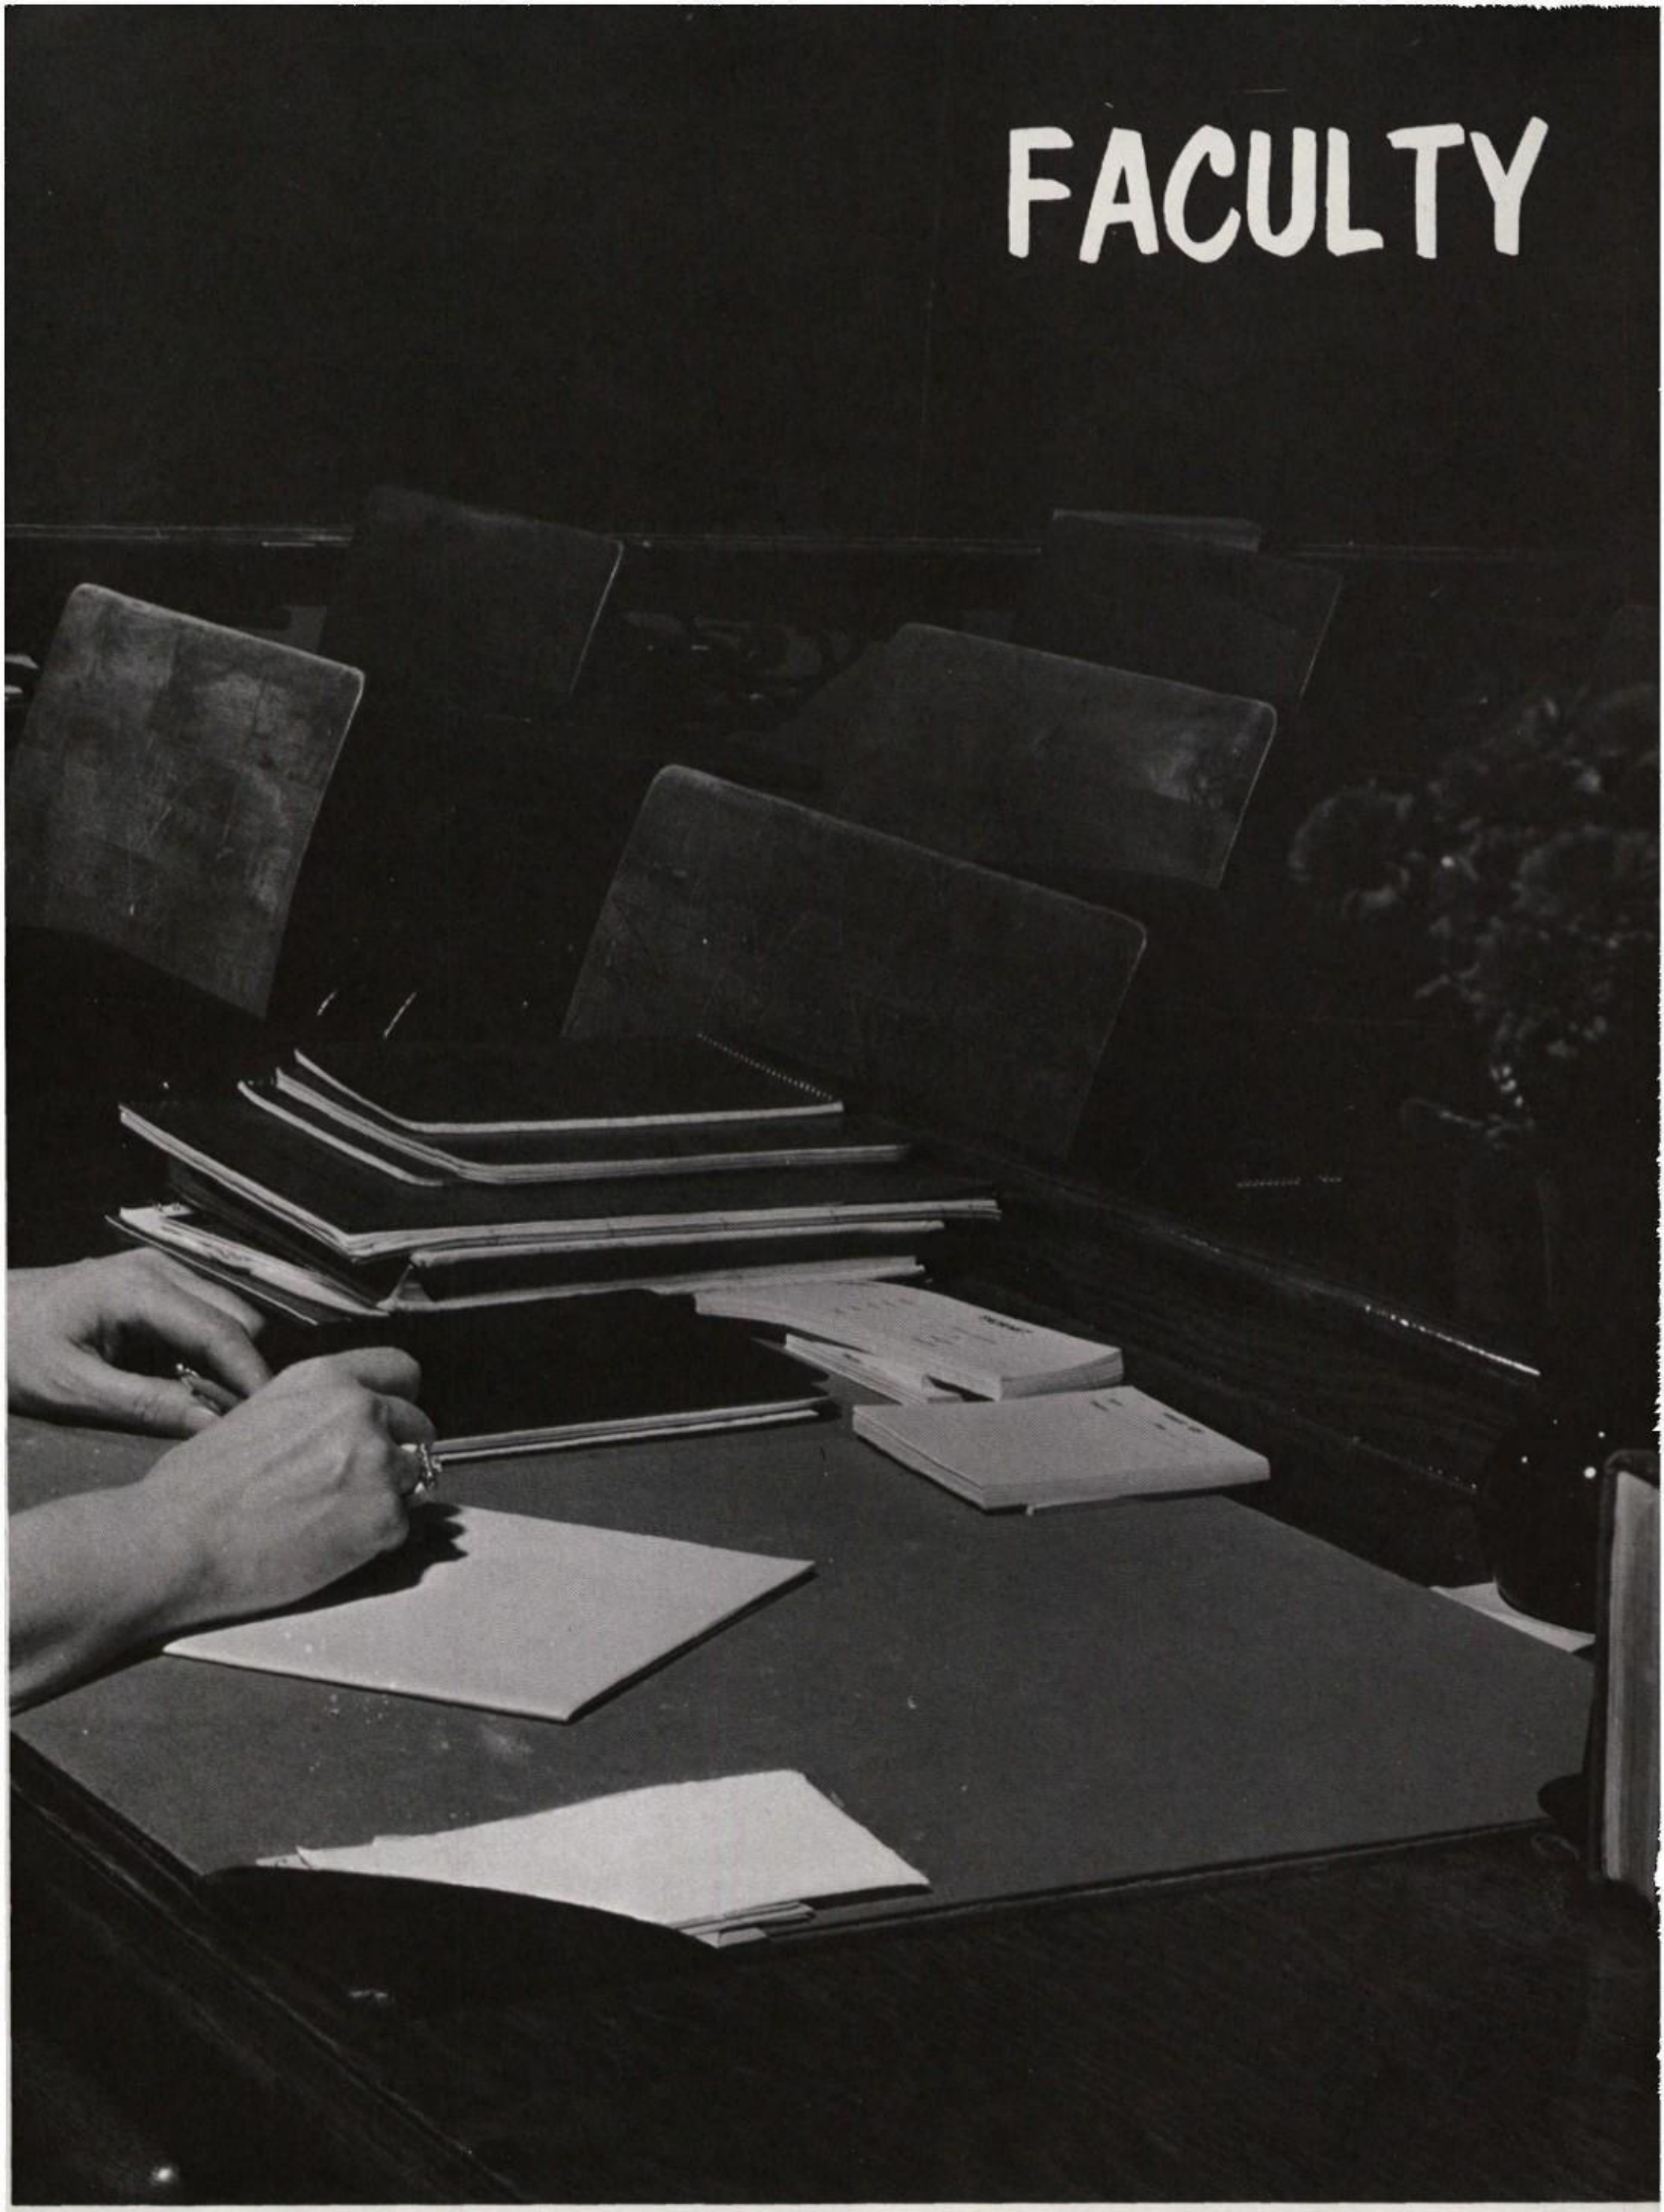
YEARBOOK STAFF

These staff members and their committees have put in many long hours working on the Yearbook. In spite of seemingly endless problems which often were discouraging, they persevered; pages were planned, pictures taken, copy written, and, finally, deadlines met.

FACULTY



FACULTY MOTIVATES,

We, the graduating class of 1959, wish to express our gratitude to the faculty of Harbor High School.

During our six years at Harbor, you, our teachers, have always been willing to help us. We have come to rely on your judgment and to admire you.

Principal R. M. MEEHAN and his secretary, Mrs. EDNA V. BECKMAN, are checking absence lists and preparing for a long day's work in the "Upper Office." Mr. Meehan has been principal for six years. He received his B.S. from Youngstown College and M.A. from Western Reserve University.

Mr. JOSEPH M. MANDARINO has been our Class Adviser for two years. His pleasing personality has made him a great favorite with us. We want to thank him for his faithful guidance and help in planning for our Prom and other class projects. Mr. Mandarino graduated with a B.S. from Geneva College. He teaches French, English, and Psychology.

Mrs. WILLIAM TIENVIERI, Attendance Officer, and Mrs. GLENN GRIMM get together for a friendly chat. Mrs. Tienvieri helps students with their working papers and taxes. Mrs. Grimm teaches the Special Education Class held in Hubbard House.

May you always be a "guiding light--reflected from above."

OF '59

When, twelve years ago, twenty-eight shining-faced youngsters tromped off to kindergarten, it was hard for us as well as our teacher, Miss Harriet Tilton, to believe that so soon we would become the seniors of Harbor High School.

We, these seniors, now take a moment to reminisce before proceeding along unknown trails.

Terry Lawrence got off to a fine start by getting locked in jail during a kindergarten trip to the fire station. That was the year our artistic talent began to bloom. Judy Beckman and Becky Raisanen learned to paint. They dabbled walls, floors, and the unfortunates who happened to sit near them.

Marty Lindenmayer and Bobbie Billhardt didn't take long to discover how soft the rug was on which to take short (?) naps. Little Karen Annala and Patty Lintala were, for some unknown reason, taken to the cloakroom accompanied by teacher and "twelve inches." We had trouble telling whether Jackie was Gerri or Gerri was Jackie when we met the Richards twins.

We enjoyed our mid-morning snacks in first and second grades. Slowly we learned to spell "kat" and read about the "Adventures of Jim and Judy," and of course, we can't forget their wonder dog, Tag.

Newcomers in first grade were Allan Endelmann, Jeffy Pillars, and Lindy Ralph. In second grade we were graced by the arrival of Davie Purtilo and Donnie Pyer. Before long we began writing stories; Ruthie Luoma never stopped!

As third graders, we started on our "never ending quest (?) for arithmetic." After giving our teachers many gray hairs, we learned to multiply. "Such fun!" stated little Marty Thayer. Before he could retract his statement, we were faced with long (and it was long) division.

We discovered that third graders, Nancy Peterson and Betty Lou Sandella, had joined us to learn the 3 R's, "Rebelling, Rioting, and Ransacking!"

In fourth grade, we gained four new members; namely, "M.J." Engelke, Warren-Allan Hauser, Jacky Hinkle, and Johnny Lengyel. In the craft room we learned to work with papier mache. Nancy Peura, Bobby Niemi, and Judy Walker each arrived home sporting a four inch giraffe and four feet of papier mache clothes, shoes, faces, and yes, hair too!

Our teacher, Mrs. Rittenhouse, was taken ill, and we were saddened by her death the following summer.

As fifth graders we welcomed Roger Garfield. We learned much about the Jewish faith from our teacher, Mrs. Samson. We even sampled "unleavened bread." Meanwhile, the "Jackson kids" were learning about Alaska from their well-traveled teacher, Mrs. Chambers. That year writing certificates were awarded. Even Brian Laffey got one!

New sixth graders to join our class were Kenny Cox, Marilyn McSweeney, and Nancy Nieminen. That year we demonstrated our dramatic talent with our presentation of "Johnny Appleseed." Our little heads swelled as we performed it twice--with different audiences!

Shy little G. Paddy Rasanen started "running the mile" as he dodged of all things--girls! Chuckie Riippa became the Romeo of our class. Little (?) Willie Davidson was introduced to a football, while Russell Flint fumbled around with a camera.

Marvin Clark arranged for us to tour his daddy's plant--the CEI. Hughie McFarland took us through Hotel Ashtabula.

Tearfully leaving behind recesses, eraser cleaning on the fire escape, Christmas caroling in the hall, the "Game Room," Washington-Jackson rivalry, and even our petty romances, we bravely entered the huge building called Harbor High School. We also left behind the paddle in the office--ha! ha!--or so thought rowdies, Mary Ann Pokky, Billy Gaskell, and Paul Miller. As our Jackson classmates joined us, we gained many new friends. Coming into our seventh grade class of sixty-nine members was another set of twins, Thelma and Velma Carpenter.

We were delightfully late to classes as we enjoyed the novelty of changing rooms every forty minutes. Gym class was fun as we were privileged to spend the first year in our brand new Fawcett Gymnasium.

It seemed that Mrs. Eddy and Mrs. Alford were always hiding around corners, ready to "catch" us chewing gum or racing up the down stairs--or worse yet--down the up stairs! The gummy noses and tardiness to class of Pat Luce, Joanne Thayer, Katrina Hakala, and Judy Jaskela, proved that they learned the hard way.

In eighth grade we made another new friend, Bobbi Butcher. As we learned more about the library, Hallie Jo Wark decided she liked it.

Our Freshman Class Play, "It's Cold in Them Thar Hills," won the Junior High Play Contest. Participating in this as well as many other plays were Bob Huhta, Phyl Mintz, Jim Plagakis, and Elayne Triozzi. Our growing family gained five members this year; Doug Hanna, Sandy McNair, Pat Mauro, Terry Roe, and Martha Schlieper. Struggles with beginning Latin and Algebra provided us with numerous never-to-be-forgotten experiences.

As sophomores we were thrilled to find our homerooms on the third floor. Four more joined our class this year. They were Nancy Campbell, Judy Foust, Dave Patterson, and Carl Telander. We had hayrides and parties, but we worked hard too, on bake sales and other projects. Everyone liked our class play during the "Variety Show." "A Date for Bobby Sox" was a huge success, thanks to our fine cast, including Linda Koski, who stepped into the starring role at the last minute.

The Study Hall became our homeroom in our junior year. We picked out many new faces among us; Bruce Andersen, Fran Baker, Bill Huffman, Danny Monda, and Suzann Von Schwarz. Soon we started practice for our class play, "Papa Was a Preacher." We also began planning for, worrying about, and finally decorating for our beautiful Junior-Senior Prom, "Oriental Gardens." We slaved away behind locked doors to produce one of the most magnificent proms ever. That year we really worked! Our relatives dodged us for fear they would be persuaded to buy some of our candy, play tickets, pom-poms, or stationery!

Too soon for many of us, we became the lofty, looked-up-to seniors. We happily looked forward to graduation, but our senior year passed much too swiftly. Our "Mariner" football team gave us an undefeated football season, and--best of all--a victory over our rivals, the Ashtabula Panthers!

Now we must say good-bye to Harbor. But we shall never lose the wonderful memories of our school years, just as we shall never forget the closing lines of our Harbor Hymn, "We pledge our loyalty, Harbor to thee!"

This year the Juniors have worked very hard to raise money for the Junior-Senior Prom. Among their projects have been selling candy, mums, monogrammed footballs, Christmas trees, stationery, and putting on bake sales, fish frys, and carwashes. In October they began a drive to sell tickets for their successful Junior Class Play, "A Date with Judy."

Mr. Richard Johnson and Mr. Harold Caylor, Class Advisers, who enjoy working with the Juniors remarked, "They are a very cooperative and energetic group."

Their President, Kip Jones, has held the office for three years. Helping Kip lead the class are Martin Miller, Vice-Pres.; Gwen Miller, Secretary; and Cyndy Carlisle, Treasurer.

The Sophomore Class started the year off "with a bang" as their many projects included a "Super Supper," bake sale, and a Valentine Candy Sale. Many enjoyed planning a dance in December, and working in the concession stand during basketball season.

The cooperative class members are working towards their goal for the next year--the Prom. Class officers, Pete Pearson, President; Bob Pressman, Vice-President; Mary Hinkle, Secretary; and Lonnie Riippa, Treasurer, are aided by their watchful Adviser, Mr. William Wasulko. They are planning several projects to raise money.

Fish frys, bake sales, and a picnic head the agenda for the ambitious Freshman Class. These ninth graders usually have a good representation on the Honor Roll. They can also be proud of the successful seasons turned in by their Freshman football and basketball teams.

According to Mr. Herbert Bierdeman, Class Adviser, who aids them with all their projects, the Freshmen are "a good bunch of kids."

President, Jim Nyland, is helped by his hard-working officers, Richard Huhta, Vice-President; Suzanne Turner, Secretary; and Virginia Bishop, Treasurer.

Looking to the future the 8th Graders have begun making money already. They have held bake sales and have many other ideas in mind.

Officers, Dave Turner, President; Dave Fortney, Vice-President; Libby Hall, Secretary; and Linda McGriff, Treasurer; are working with their Adviser, Mr. Oliver Kaura, Band Director.

Last spring in the Junior High Play Contest they presented the play, "Double Date," followed by a party at Jeanne Triozzi's. Plans call for a class party at the end of this school year.

CLASS OF '64

In their first few days at H.H.S., the 7th Graders spent the entire four minutes between classes getting lost. They like many things about high school. "Lockers are lots better than cloakrooms," they say. Something new for all 7th Graders is yelling at pep meetings. They like study hall where they can "gab" with their friends before (?) the bell rings.

Pet peeves are: homework, being pushed around, crowded halls, and detention. "Time sure drags when you are sitting in the detention room," as most 7th Graders have now found out.

They like to expend their boundless energy by jumping on the "tramp", tumbling, playing basketball, etc., in the gym.

The class has done well under Adviser, Mr. Harrylee D. Utz.

These 7th Graders apparently feel that "five heads are better than one!" when doing homework.

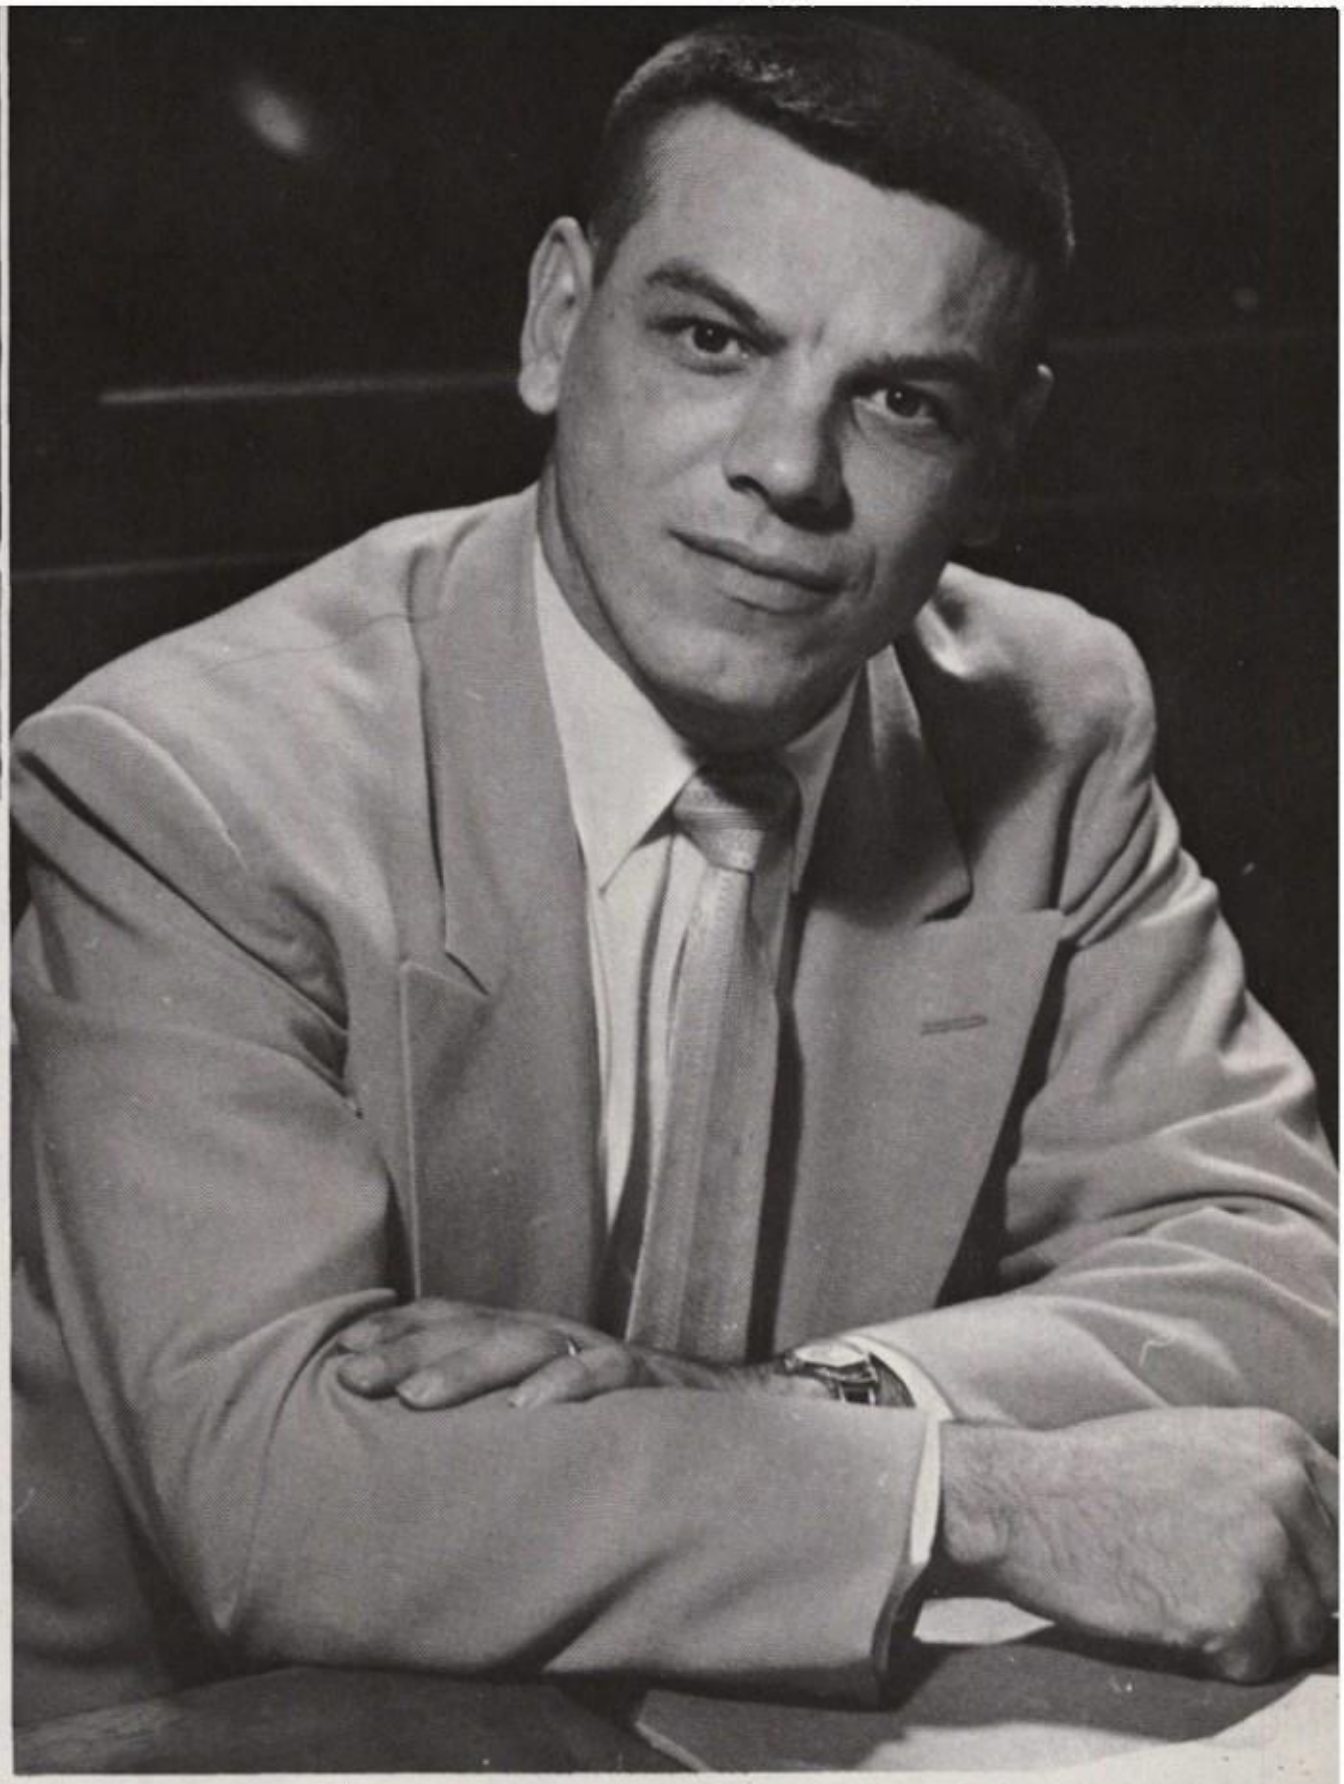
OUR FAVORITE, MR. NORBERT SOLTYS

Mr. Soltys is the favorite of all football players, and physics, advanced algebra, and slide rule students, as well as the Class of '59. His voice can often be heard "booming out" during checking as he quiets the "rowdy juniors."

Under his exceptional coaching ability, our football team has won 28 out of 30 games and even beat the Ashtabula Panthers!! Mr. Soltys, with his voracious appetite, kept the grass trimmed during football season.

He is studying for his master's degree in Applied Statistics. With his fine teaching ability, he really "gets the point across" to all his students and makes sure they understand even the most difficult topic.



Mariner basketballers had a rather disappointing season but still provided fans with many thrilling moments. Coaches John Abel and Norb Soltys worked at building up a young team, which at one time boasted four sophomore starters, into a fighting mucleus for the future. Although they usually got off to a slow start, the boys played an aggressive game which left Mariner followers breathless.

Seniors Bill Davidson, Bob Huhta, Brian Laffey, and George Rasanen were key players for the Harbor five. Bill and Brian's control of the backboards and George and Bob's ballhandling and shooting played large parts in the team's success. However, the team suffered a crushing blow when George, leading scorer, was laid up in mid-season with an injured foot.

"I have a funny feeling someone's watching me."

"WE ARE FROM HARBOR HIGH SCHOOL . . ."

The Senior High Varsity Cheerleaders purchased new "purple and gold" uniforms which have pleated skirts and sailor-style blouses. The cheerleaders held a pep meeting before every football game and most basketball games, either in the auditorium or the gym.

They put on several skits. One was about the "Golden Anchor," which the winner of the Harbor-Edgewood game receives. Harbor has had it for four straight years. During another skit, Jeff Pillars, decked out as "Homecoming Queen," rode onto the stage in a little car.

The Senior High Reserve Cheerleaders led the Band in cheering at football games, and participated in several pep meetings.

These eleven girls really worked hard to help us have successful seasons in competitive sports.

"Have a crick in your back, Brian?" Coach Gray asks as Jeff and Marv watch.

"Do you think we'll ever catch up with our shadows?"

"Come down and fight like a man!!"

The 1958 Track Team won their third consecutive Western Reserve League Track Title, placed third in the District Meet and eighth in the Mentor Relays, and won all their dual meets except one. Miler George Rasanen and 440-man Brian Laffey qualified for the State Meet at Columbus.

Nine returning lettermen--Marv Clark, Bob Huhta, Bill Davidson, Brian Laffey, Hugh McFarland, George Rasanen, Jeff Pillars, Floyd Copeland, and Bromley Luke--bolstered Coach Elmer Gray's hopes that the 1959 squad could equal the success of former years as they aimed for their fourth straight WRL Track Title.

THE GOLF TEAM

In 1955, Mr. R. M. Meehan and a few interested boys got together and discussed organizing a golf team. While yet inexperienced, they played a few matches. Soon the Northeast Golf League was organized. Schools in the NEGL are Wickliffe, Willoughby, Chardon, Painesville Harvey, Painesville Riverside, and Harbor. Our home matches are played at the Country Club.

Last year the linksman, coached by Mr. Meehan, won forty matches and lost only five. They placed second in the Cleveland District and first in the NEGL.

This spring the Golf Team will be going into their fourth year of competition. They will be coached by Mr. William Wasulko. A big event coming up is the District Tournament in Cleveland, where linksmen can get team or individual honors.

The boys say, "We hope to repeat as champions of our league."

The staff reporters gather and write up school news. An article is typed and sent to the Print Shop. It comes back to "308" and is proofread.

The actual process of printing the MARINER is the job of the juniors and seniors in the vocational printing classes.

Louis DeWein says, "In this course we try to prepare the student for work in the printing industry." Harbor is the only school between Cleveland and Erie that offers a course in printing.

They also print tickets and programs. Four-color tickets were made for the Variety Show.

Printing and journalism classes visited the Cleveland Plain Dealer and the Penton Publishing House last spring.

G. A. A.

The objective of the Girls' Athletic Association is to "further the girls' athletic program." The girls compete with other schools in playdays and attend sports clinics. Intramurals, bowling, and decorating goal posts are also ways of earning the 50 points required each semester. 500 points are needed for a letter, 900 for a medal, and 1100 for a trophy.

Meetings of GAA are on the first and third Mondays. Bunny Crandall was a guest speaker this fall. Officers are Hallie Jo Wark, Pres.; Nancy Peura, Vice-Pres.; Suzanne Regner, Sec.; and Mary Hinkle, Treas. Adviser is Miss Gloria Leach.

A banquet is held every May where awards are presented and new officers are announced.

"Look out below!" is the warning as Steve Hartman demonstrates his antics on the trampoline.

"Up and away!" goes Bob Huhta with the help of Jeff Pillars, Dave Felt, Gary Godley, and Bob Billhardt, during the Monogram Club Initiation. Marv Clark watches the fun.

MONOGRAM CLUB

Advisers, Mr. Elmer Gray and Mr. Norbert Soltys, say the Monogram Club "Tries to promote a good healthy attitude towards sports."

All boys who have earned a letter in a major sport can become members of the Monogram Club--if they can go through the initiation. This year it was held on January 28; the boys really had a rough time, but they enjoyed it.

They raise money by carwashes, the Carnival, and by working at the concession stand. With their funds they purchased shoes for the Freshman Football Team and paid for part of the football movies.

Wearing their purple and gold "Mariner" jackets is the pride and joy of all Monogram boys. During Class AA Tournaments they were busy checking cars.

The officers are George Rasanen, Pres.; Dave Purtilo, Vice-Pres.; Bill Davidson, Sec.-Treas.; and Brian Laffey, Sgt. at Arms. They meet on the second Wednesday. "Eats" are a part of every meeting. They also watch films on sports.

JUNIOR Y-TEENS

The "Potato Chip Sale" is a yearly project of the Junior Y-Teens. The club held a Junior High Dance in January, called the "Snowflake Swirl." They helped buy a movie projector for the YWCA. The installation of new officers takes place in a beautiful candlelight service with the singing of the "Y-Teen Song."

Adviser, Mrs. Clara Alford, helps club officers, Carol Johnson, President; Christine Beckman, Vice-Pres.; and Peggy Schow. Sec.-Treas. Carol attended Y-Teen Camp last summer. Interclub Council members are Sharon Gardner and Mary Ellen Depue.

Linda Petruzzi, Sharon Gardner, and Mary Ann Domizi are discussing the Junior Y-Teen swimming party with Adviser, Mrs. Clara Alford.

SENIOR Y-TEENS

The Senior Y-Teens helped in the UNICEF Drive and the Annual YWCA Dinner, held a gift wrapping party, and managed the "Potato Chip Sale" this year. Bjorg Ahlsen spoke to the group about her native country, Norway. All Senior Y-Teens were given membership cards at a program in the fall.

Officers, Cyndy Carlisle, President; Jean Hakala, Secretary; and Sandy Heath, Treasurer; are aided by their Advisers, Miss Mary Ann Loar and Mrs. Ernest Hunt.

The Senior Y-Teens meet on the second and fourth Monday nights in the Home Economics Room. Kathy Haapala and Susan Paananen are the Interclub Council members.

At one senior Y-Teen meeting the girls broke up into panels to discuss various subjects. This group, consisting of Susan Paananen, Jinny Bishop, Kaye Andres, Carol Peterson, and Marilyn Gunn, is talking about "dating."

MODERN DANCERS

Sophomore and Juniors make up the group of Modern Dancers. Officers are Suzanne Regner, Pres.; Sandy Lyon, Vice-Pres.; Cyndy Carlisle, Sec.-Treas.; Joanne Wagner, Attendance Officer; Judy Kneen, Program Chm.; Susan Carle, Chm. of Music and Records. The girls practice in the gym on Wednesday nights.

They begin practice by listening to their musical numbers and interpreting them with their own original motions. Then they try to exercise and limber up for over 100 hours before presenting a show.

The Modern Dancers make their own costumes, except for their jerseys, called "leotards," and their long stockings, called "lollitards."

The Modern Dancers are planning to present a Spring Recital with many solos, duets, and group numbers. Guest speakers on modern dance are also planned for the spring.

In the Variety Show the Modern Dancers presented a Sailor Dance, "Blow High, Blow Low" from Carousel, with the help of eight junior and senior boys.

They also danced to "Come To Me, Bend To Me" from "Brigadoon," which was sung by Herbert Bierdeman. Sandra Lyon performed a solo dance.

USHER SQUAD

Girls in the Usher Squad really "enjoy ushering." They are on duty at nearly all important public programs given in the auditorium, including plays and concerts. They sell tickets at many performances.

Tryouts are held in the fall for juniors and seniors who wish to join. The girls then make a study of printed rules for ushers. They must make sure that everyone is taken to the correct section, the correct row, and the correct seat.

The ushers are always dressed neatly and often wear formals, which add a touch of color to any performance. Miss Wisman is their Adviser.

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

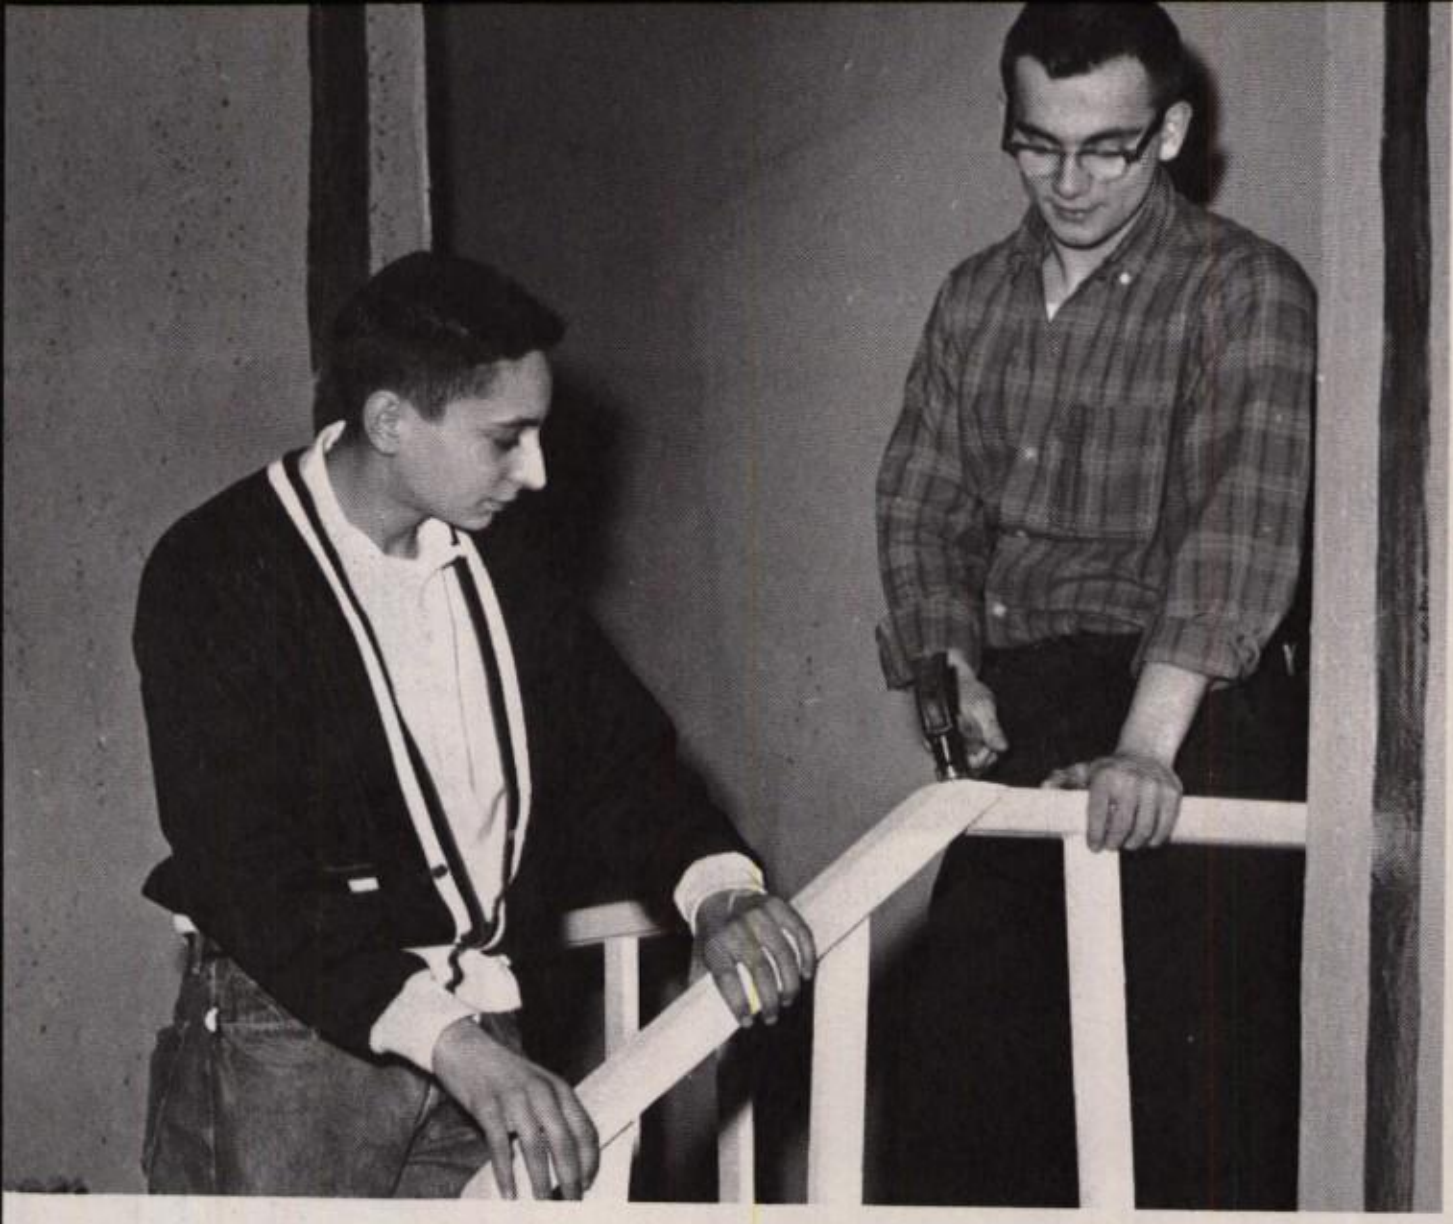
The Photography Club was organized for students interested in photography.

Members learn how to take pictures properly, develop film, and make enlargements.

They own a Century Graphic press camera, a contact printer, an electronic flash, and the chemicals used in developing.

Photography Club members obtain passes from Mr. Caylor to use the darkroom during their free periods. They sometimes take pictures for the MARINER.

The work of this club has been hindered by the loss of much of their photographic equipment.



STAGE CREW

Behind the scenes during all stage performances are our three "stage hands," Dan Atzemis, Joe Licate, and Roger Golembieski. Mr. Utz is their Adviser.

Among their many duties are these: putting up scenery, setting up lights, and keeping the stage and the brass rails clean. They also put the "gelatin" on the gym and stage spot lights, to add color to dances and plays.

The biggest job of the year for these boys is the Variety Show with its many scenery changes and lighting effects.

These boys spend all their study halls back stage working, cleaning, and studying.

MOVIE OPERATORS

The Movie Operators render a service to the school by showing movies and slides to the classes. Student Director, Warren Hauser, and his two assistants, Ray Macaro and Dan Atzemis, also set up the PA equipment for football games and announce the basketball games and track meets. They often run movies for outside clubs.

All members of the group learn how to run and clean the projectors and set up the screen. They insure and return all movies. All the audiovisual aid equipment is under their care. Seldom a day goes by when no movies are shown, either in the auditorium or the physics lab.

Queen Phyllis reigned at the Homecoming Dance the next eve, and bequeathed her crown to next year's Queen during the official coronation and presentation of the Court.

Bjorg's gold pin and the gold clasp on her belt complete her outfit.

BJORG AHLSEN, OUR FRIEND FROM NORWAY

Bjorg Lise Ahlsen, from Tyssedal in Hardanger, Norway, spent a year as a welcome guest in Ashtabula. She arrived by airplane on July 26, 1958, and stayed with her sponsors, the Warren Hausers. Bjorg was a member of the Junior Class.

In her Norwegian school of 350 pupils, Bjorg learned French, German, English, and Norwegian. During each week she took thirteen subjects.

She belonged to the "Speider" in Norway and the Girl Scouts here. Bjorg has found many things which are new to her. Her favorite American foods are hamburgers and pie. She likes to watch football games. "In Norway they do a lot more walking," she noticed. She loves to ski, swim, fish, dance, and hike.

"Youth are the same the world over," found Bjorg as she compared Norwegian and American teenagers. She celebrated her sixteenth birthday on March 17, St. Patrick's Day.

Bjorg was a sweet and charming girl and we were very happy to know her.

"PAPA WAS A PREACHER"

Preacher and Mrs. Porter plan to renew their wedding vows for their upcoming silver anniversary. Their sons get into a row with a neighbor, Miss Jonas, a camera bug. She takes pictures of the Porter children which she threatens to show to the Bishop. When it is discovered that she has a still in her basement, the tables are turned and a happy ending results as she reforms.

Student director was Sandy McNair and bookholders were Ruth Luoma and Nancy Peura.

"MRS. MCTHING"

Mrs. McThing is a witch who replaces Howay Larue and his mother Belle Larue with sticks because Mrs. Larue wouldn't let the witch's adopted daughter, Mimi, play with Howay. Three mobsters, Poison Eddie, Stinker, and Dirty Joe take Howay and Belle Larue under their wing at the Shantyland Pool Hall Lunchroom. With the help of these mobsters and Mimi, Belle and Howay manage to rid their home of the sticks.

Ruth Luoma was the student director while Suzann Von Schwarz and Judy Walker were bookholders.

"ON AND OFF BROADWAY"

The 18th annual MARINER VARIETY SHOW, "Entertainment On and Off Broadway," was directed by Mrs. Helia K. Lehtinen. Mrs. Lehtinen first formulated the idea for the show and has directed it for 18 consecutive years. She was presented with 18 red roses by Jackie Richards, Miss Varieties of 1959.

Many other acts were performed in addition to those pictured here. Sharon Andersen and Kathryn English presented solo dances. Majorettes did a routine to "The Rain in Spain." The Modern Dancers made their first appearance of the year in "Come to Me, Bend to Me," and "Blow High, Blow Low."

Sarajean Bordeaux and Dave Felt sang a duet, "Stranger in Paradise." Pat Spring pantomimed "Ambrose," and sang "Can't Help Loving That Man of Mine."

Thespians presented a skit, "Patter Pan." Miss Betty Jean O'Dell and Mr. Herbert Bierdeman enacted scenes from a Greek tragedy, "Medea." Religious atmosphere for the Lenten season was presented in a choral reading "The Creation."

The Choir and the Goddess of Liberty, Judy Jaskela, closed the program with "Give Me Your Tired, Your Poor."

Miss Helen Ley has taught art at Harbor for two "second semesters."

Putting forth their best efforts in the 10th Annual Mathematical Contest are Dave Felt, Bob Hauser, Tom Wallender, Bob Fortney, and Jim Dunnick.

We, the 1959 Yearbook Staff fondly leave these memories of our "YEARBOOK ROOM" to the 1960 Yearbook Staff:

1. Popular shortcut for hall monitors and entire school.
2. Overpowering heat and leaking radiator.
3. Universal storage room.
4. Problem of opening the lock to the cabinet when the key is locked in.
5. Joy of wading thru litter on the floor.
6. Oddly decorated walls.
7. Joy of stumbling up and down the auditorium steps and groping thru the corridors late at night. Last minute flurry before deadlines.

RIGHT: "And now a word from our sponsor."

"If you want to pass--laugh!" is Mr. John A. Fawcett's unwritten motto. Judging by the report cards in Mr. Fawcett's hand, it doesn't seem to be doing any harm to these senior girls--Thelma, Pat, Lucy, Elayne, Nancy, and Joanne.

Mr. Fawcett came to Harbor in 1926 as a physics and general science instructor. In 1929, he became principal and taught math. For twenty-four years, he was the principal of Harbor High School. He passed on the job of principal to R. M. Meehan in 1953, and has taught geometry and social studies for the past six years.

In 1953 the Fawcett Gymnasium was dedicated to him as a lasting remembrance of his hard work. Now in 1959, thirty-three years after he first came to Harbor, Mr. Fawcett is retiring. We, the Class of 1959, wish to salute a fine teacher and friend.

GOODBYE . . . MR. FAWCETT . . . MR. MANDARINO . . .

We want to thank Mr. Joseph M. Mandarino for being our Class Adviser for the past two years. He has worried with us about our class's "low financial status," and has helped us with our Prom, Yearbook, ticket drives, sales, and money-making projects of all kinds.

He is considered a real friend of each member of our class. Learning psychology from him was fun because he brought in much "outside material." His classes were always among the best liked in school. Thanks, Mr. Mandarino.

"When I was in the mental hospital . . ." These immortal words of Mr. Mandarino will ever linger within the walls of "209."

The person who has worked hardest on this yearbook is Russell Flint. He has done a terrific job on all the pictures. Russ has gone up in an airplane to take aerial shots, been arrested for taking the ADS division page, missed many, many classes, and often stayed up till 5 AM printing pictures. He has truly been dedicated to his work.

The rest of the staff members have done a wonderful job too. Sandy and her committee began planning layouts already last June. Ruth and her group have written hundreds of "blurbs" and checked on countless facts. Joanne and Gerri have done a neat and accurate job of typing. Judy as drawn some beautiful artwork, especially the Prom. Brian has worked to get a record number of subscriptions. Bob and his committee have brought in 21 pages of interesting ads.

A big "Thank you" goes to all teachers, parents, friends, and everyone who has helped with this yearbook. We hope you enjoy looking back to it in the years to come.

"Thank you"--Patty

Dear Peggy,

I just found one clean page. I'll be, maybe I can fill it. This certainly has been a prosperous year for us all. I can remember when it was last year that we became such good friends & I'm glad. We have done quite a few things together and had (what we thought) some pretty serious talks. It's been so much fun knowing you and being your friend. Remember the path behind your house, the one I used every day to come back and forth. One thing I'll never forget is when we ran to Nappie's to get some food, and the special times we had to go by Gerrys for Nance. What about the time when you came out and made my cumberbun for me. I'm still indebted to you for that. I can remember when you and Nance used to march in the band at games & on your way up Lake Avenue we would run along and holler out to you. We've done & said many other things which I won't put in writing. (Can't incriminate myself) But I'll be looking forward to seeing you in school next fall. (You know Sr. Girls Initiation) Best of Love, Luck, & Laughs Always to a sweet girl & one of my best friends

P.S. you love that coat came to see me before the prom. & forgot about when you Always Pattie

Dear Peggy,

Lots of luck in everything you do. Remember last summer when Jan, Jane and I went babysitting, and Nancy and I..... You know what I mean!

We sure have had alot of fun together this past year. I hope we can be the best of friends in the future.

Lots of love and luck always to you and Barbara Jill, because you deserve it.

Dear Peggy,
We've had lots of fun together and I'm glad you're coming back next year. I'm sure Barbara Jill will be a swell kid. Keep up the good work in school. Best of luck in everything. I'm sure you'll do.
